Other Programs and Services:

Based on the information you provided, you or someone in your household may be eligible for other programs and services you can't apply for at this website. Visit the websites below to learn more about these programs and services.

Medical

- o You or someone in your household may be eligible for Washington Apple Health coverage. Washington Apple Health is free or low cost health care coverage provided by the State of Washington and the Federal government. It may include dental care. If you are not eligible for Washington Apple Health, you may be eligible to receive tax credits that will lower your cost to purchase health insurance. Start the application for health care coverage at the Washington Healthplanfinder, www.wahealthplanfinder.org (<http://www.wahealthplanfinder.org>)

Employment, Education and Training

- If anyone in your home is in college or interested in going to college, you may be eligible for Federal Student Aid. Find more about how to apply for Federal Student Aid at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/> (<http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>).

Housing and Utilities

- It appears you may be eligible for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). Learn more about LIHEAP at <http://www.commerce.wa.gov/growing-the-economy/energy/low-income-home-energy-assistance/> (<http://www.commerce.wa.gov/growing-the-economy/energy/low-income-home-energy-assistance/>).
- If you are homeless, at risk of becoming homeless, or need help paying for housing, find out how to get connected to services in your area by dialing 2-1-1 or 1-877-211-9274, or visiting Washington 211 <https://win211.org>.
